Course Goal: To stretch each student's understanding of the nature and ministry of the church, and increase their comfort and skill level in ministering to people significantly different than they are.

Course Objectives

- To help students feel comfortable in ministering to individuals who are significantly different than they are, as well as grasping a wider understanding of the nature of the Church in the world.
- For each student to appreciate the role of personal spiritual development for ministry leaders, and to intentionally examine areas in her or his life with Christ that need to be expanded.
- To gain skills in problem solving through the use of simplified case studies; using them as tools for finding key issues involved in difficult situations both in student ministry and in future ministry.

Cross-cultural Ministry Placement

1. Work with your Mentor to select a cross-cultural ministry placement. The course instructor must approve all placements.
2. For the purposes of MM 602, the term “cross-cultural” has a broad definition: focusing on persons that are significantly different from themselves. This may include language, socio-economic level, nationality, education level, ethnicity, religion, physical ability, and freedom (prisoners).
3. Your ministry placement should ideally be an extension of your ministry in your local church (preferably where you served in SM601). Our goal is that your work this semester will result in the expansion of congregational mission and ministries.
4. Examples of cross-cultural ministries are activities with different cultural groups, inner-city ministry, ministry at the Veterans Center, at Nathaniel Mission, with the homeless, and others.
5. The calendar is the semester-planning guide for the course. As we update it during the Reflection Group, all changes become part of the "official" schedule for which you are responsible. Details For the Class are found in the new MM/SM 601/602 Handbook.

Class Requirements

Mentored Ministry (SMin) courses are, in the words of Joel Green, comparable to science lab courses at other graduate schools. As such, our classroom time will give each person the opportunity to process their “lab” experiences with peers in a safe, positive environment. To facilitate this atmosphere, we’ll use the following processes:

1. Each student will prepare one case study during the semester (See the Mentored Ministry Handbook for the new, simplified format). The student will provide the professor and all classmates with copies of the case study one week in advance of presenting it.
2. Each student will spend eight (8) hours per week at their ministry site, plus one hour reflection with their Mentor. Time spent traveling to the site does not count towards this eight-hour requirement.
3. Each student will complete the required readings for the assigned date (see attached schedule). Variations from this schedule may be made from time to time.
4. A one-page, single spaced Reflection Paper is due on the final class day of class. Specific information regarding the content of this paper will be discussed in class.
5. Each student is expected to attend weekly classroom meetings.

Required Reading

The Acts of the Apostles, selected chapters

Sider, Olson, and Unruh, Churches that Make a Difference, (Grand Rapids: Baker, 2002).

Mentored Ministry Handbook: MM/SMin 601/602 purchased from the professor for $5, or downloaded from the website.

‘Hot Topics’

A portion of some class sessions will be devoted to discussing issues ministry that pastors and other church leaders face. Students will not have any additional assignments in preparation for these ‘Hot Topics.’ ‘Hot Topic’ discussions this fall will include Personal Finances, Funeral/Grief, and Marriage.

Means of Evaluation

This is a credit/no credit course. To receive credit for the course, students must complete all assignments as described in this syllabus and discussed in class.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- Credit for the course will be withheld if all evaluations and reports are not properly signed and/or if all copies are not submitted to the MM/SM) office by calendar deadlines.
- All questions regarding your MM/SM experience should be taken up with your CRGF. If he/she requires further counsel, the CRGF will then speak with the Director of the MM/SM department.
